

Do you need training to return to work?

Senior Community Service Employment Program

Get paid while learning new skills through the Senior Community Service Employment Program (SCSEP) at Goodwill®.

If you are 55 years of age or older, have a low income*, and want to get back into the workforce, Goodwill can help.

Let Goodwill help you return to the workforce!

Goodwill can connect you with a local nonprofit or other community service agency, where you will get paid to build work experience through on-the-job training. Then, take the skills you learn to advance to regular employment.

To see if the program is a good fit for you, contact:

*Goodwill will help you determine income criteria. Priority is given to individuals over 65, and to veterans and their spouses.

Goodwill® proudly participates in the Senior Community Service Employment Program (SCSEP), a national employment and training program funded by the U.S. Department of Labor. A $22,836,313 grant from the U.S. Department of Labor provided 90 percent of the funding for Goodwill's SCSEP programs in the program year 2023. Goodwill provided the remaining 10 percent through in-kind contributions worth $2,537,378. See <http://www.goodwill.org/scsep/> for funding details. The Goodwill Industries of Akron, OH, Inc. received a sub award of $213,216 and is contributing in-kind contributions valued at $24,782 to cover the remaining 10 percent of operational costs.
